Dear Judge Rakoff,

My name is Diana Perez. I am a Line Supervisor. I supervise machine operators of silk screen printing, packers and line-packers.

We print from calculators, radios, clocks, to tote bags, etc.

I've been working with this company for 11 years. I like working in this company because over the years I learned to deal with different people.

By this I mean everyone has a different mood each day and different characteristic [sic] and everyday you learn something new.

As with the job with they have trouble shooting, I am always there for them to help them and teach them. And also learn from them.

I also like to have a lot of communication with my workers as if a return or a order comes back. We do a little meeting and try to find solution to fix the problem.

Changing the subject a little how I know Angel A. Perez. He is my 2nd oldest brother. He is very humorous [sic]. He is always trying to put a smile on our faces.

Sometimes when I'm sad he tries to cheer me up. And if I don't smile we will start dancing until he finally get the out of me.

My brother is also like a father figure for us. He always looking out for us, making sure everything is okay. He worries about our health, also if we ate, if we got money. If everything is okay in school, in the job etc.

Another thing I like most about my brother is he always have time for the kids, nephews, nieces, etc.

He dedicate time to play with them. Also to read to them, to tell them jokes. He also talks to them about how important it is to finish school. That it is very important to read and write. To stay in school and become someone important a good Proffessor [sic].

JR/PEREZ, A/DIANA PEREZ

He also explains to them about his mistakes. How he regret them. And how that's not going to get them anywhere. He also take care of his kids, specially when they were in the hospital. And he always make sure he have time for them. Took them to movies, play games, etc. And also regretted a couple time being locke-up [sic]. And not being there with them. He misses his kids.

My brother just turn 40 years old. I think he deserves another chance. I know as he is getting old and lonely he is finally getting mature and learning from his mistakes.

I know been in there he misses the fun the family and the freedom.

What more punishment can a person get? Specially to go to a Family Funeral from uncle and cousin on the same week. One of his favorite uncle in Massachusetts. It was so sad for all the family member to be there except him.

Another thing I am affraid [sic] is that my Mom and stepdad are both sick. My mother suffers from her heart. Her high blood pleasure [sic] is always high. She is taking medice [sic]. And my stepdad too he is disable [sic]. So I am thinking maybe know [sic] my brother will mature and be responsible [sic]. He wants a second chance. I think he deserves it. My brother got his good sides too, please give him a chance. I think we all deserve a chance or a break. I know he did made [sic] mistakes but I also know he has learn from too. I will like to thank you alot of considering my comments.
